Hello BDC Family!

I hope you have been enjoying your summer! It's hard to believe we're all gearing up for back-to-school season already!

This newsletter has some information that will be useful as you also prepare for the back-to-dance season as well!

We can't wait to see you all in studio very soon!

With lots of love,

xo - Miss Meagan

THE FIRST DAY OF CLASSES

Dance classes begin this year on September 6th. We understand this is the Monday of the long weekend, but to ensure we don't miss too many Monday classes due to holidays, we will be starting classes this day regardless.

NEW CLASSES ADDED TO THE SCHEDULE

Due to overwhelming interest in various classes resulting in waitlists, additional class options have been added. Please see the online portal to view our full class offerings.

WEBSITE UPDATE

You may have noticed a few changes to our website!

Specifically, we have added a page titled "Member Resources"

MEMBER RESOURCES

The member resources page on our website is a one-stop page for everything you might need to prepare for the season, and reference during the season!

We have the Online portal link, dress code, Member Handbook, yearly calendar and more on this page!

We encourage everyone to take a browse!

PRE-SEASON SALE & OPEN HOUSE

AUG 31

5-8 PM

Get all your dance class needs at our pre-season sale at our in-studio boutique.

Draws and snacks and fun for all as well, as we prepare for the new season with our annual open house!

BDC STUDENT AMBASSADOR PROGRAM

Applications are open for BDC Student Ambassadors for the 2021/2022 season! You'll find the link in the "Forms & Memos" section of the Member Resources page of our website! Applications are due September 1.

INTRODUCING...

Miss Meagan and Mr Cole are very excited to introduce their little peanut, Korbin! He can't wait to meet you all in studio this fall!

With our sweet new addition, we are taking time to adjust to parenthood and take in all the sweet moments with our little family. As a result, registration processing has been slower than usual. We appreciate your patience and anticipate having everything caught up over the weekend!
